

Elizabeth Coelho

Elizabeth Coelho is a Student Achievement Officer with the Literacy and Numeracy Secretariat of the Ontario Ministry of Education. She comes to the Secretariat from the teacher education program at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto. Previously Elizabeth was the District Coordinator for ESL/ELD in the Toronto District School Board. She has provided many workshops for teachers and administrators in elementary and secondary schools and has presented at conferences in Canada, the United States, and Spain.

Special interests and areas of expertise include immigrant education, second language learning, and teaching and learning in multilingual and multicultural classrooms. She has published several professional books and articles in these fields, as well as student materials for co-operative group activities. Her book Teaching and Learning in Multicultural Schools: An Integrated Approach (Multilingual Matters, 1998), focusing on the social environment of the school, has been adopted as a course text in various teacher education programs. Her latest publication, Adding English: A Guide to Teaching in Multilingual Classrooms (Pippin Publishing, 2004) is used as a course text in many Additional Qualifications courses in ESL.
